ROANOKE TO VOTE AGAIN ON LIQUOR

Wets Talk, However, of Appealing from Decision of Judge Staples.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROANOKE, VA., August 19.—Judge Staples to-day entered an order for a local option election on September 30. A petition was presented to him by Robert E. Scott and others on behalf of liquor dealers, pleading that a second election was in violation of law, as one had already been held. The court overruled the petition, and an amended petition and exceptions were made a part of the record. It is probable that the counsel for the wets may appeal to the Supreme Court to settle the question of whether the election set aside was an election, but many are opposed to making such an effort, regarding such a step as hopeless.

CONTRACTOR OPTIMISTIC.

Says New Hampden-Sidney Dormitory Will Be Ready on Time.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, VA., August 19.—Though the contractors have been busy for nearly two months with the work of overhauling Cushing Hall, the principal dormitory building, and installing a heat and light plant as well as increasing the capacity of the building, their hands will be full during the bare month which still remains before the one hundred and thirty-fourth session begins on the 15th of September. Contractor Rice, however, assures President Graham that the work will be completed and the dormitories ready for occupancy by the students when they begin to come in at the opening of the session. When this work is completed, Hampden-Sidney will have perhaps the best equipped and best appointed dormitory of any school in the State.

Kennett and their successors in trust, will receive $10,000 in cash, the same to be used in the establishment of a college by this denomination. If the building of the college shall be delayed beyond the time said trustees shall receive said money, then the said $10,000 shall remain in perpetuity for the purpose of educating the poor young men for the ministry in the Methodist Protestant Church.

The remainder of the estate is left to relatives. The Methodist Protestants throughout the State have frequently spoken of establishing a college, and the $10,000 left them in trust by Mr. Roberts will be an encouraging nucleus for this purpose.

DEDICATE SCHOOL BUILDING.

Great Educational Rally Is Held at Tazewell Courthouse.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] TAZEWELL, VA., August 19.—Upon almost the identical spot made famous over a quarter of a century ago by the memorable debate between United States Senator H. H. Riddleberger and Hon. John W. Daniel on the laws of Colonel A. J. May occurred to-day the preliminary ceremonies of the laying of the corner-stone of the new public school building, under the auspices of the Tazewell Lodge of Masons.

The oration was delivered by Rev. Sted French, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., who was pressed into service at the last minute in the absence of Judge Duke, of Charlottesville, who was unable to fill the engagement on account of illness. Dr. French delivered a fine extempore address.

Among other things, the speaker said that Virginia had made more progress in the past six years along educational lines than any State in the Union, and told of the wonderful progress the South has made in educational lines, and how unselfish the South had been in dividing equally with the negro in her impoverished condition, giving him equal rights to obtain an education for his betterment.

Dr. French was introduced by Hon. F. M. B. Couling, of Tazewell. At the conclusion of the address the procession marched to the new school building, and in the presence of a large crowd the corner-stone was laid with impressive Masonic ceremonies.

Bond Issue for Good Roads.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHEVILLE, N. C., August 19.—The county board of commissioners yesterday decided to allow Swannanoa township to issue bonds to the amount of $30,000 for the improvement of its highways. About fifty citizens of the township approved the board in interest of the bond issue.

When the list of those in favor of the bond issue had been purged, it was found that they had a majority of seven votes. Deeming this sufficient to carry the issue, the list of those opposed was not purged. Practically the entire day was consumed in consideration of this matter.

A new "Casey at the Bat" record by De Wolf Hopper

(Victor Record 31550)

"Ten thousand eyes were on him as he rubbed his hands with dirt; Five thousand tongues applauded when he wiped them on his shirt; Then while the writhing pitcher ground the ball into his hip, Defiance gleamed in Casey's eye, a sneer curled Casey's lip."

Mr. Hopper's famous interpretation of this celebrated baseball classic is so realistic that you readily imagine yourself among the throng of yelling "fans"; you almost see the "mighty Casey" strike out; you all but hear the howls of the disappointed Mudville rooters.

A splendid record that shows the wonderful advance made in Victor recording since the former record of the same selection was issued several years ago.
